Sold a Single Family home in 2011 for approximately $600k in North Valley, San Jose, CA.

Summary:

I tried selling my house 3 years back and at that time hired a wrong real estate agent who didn't even stage my house and didn't advise me correctly on how to present the house. Seeing her performance in neighborhood, I hired Linda this time. Linda prepared my house fully - got it nicely painted, carpeted and fixed minor problems. She didn't even charge me for cleaning. The result - house got sold on very 1st day of open house and inspection went so smooth. The full escrow got closed within 17 days. It was a pleasant surprise and hence I took the efforts to write this review.
